

League Inc.
Code of Conduct

Last updated: January 23rd, 2018

The safety of every user of the League Applications is of utmost concern. This League Code of Conduct exists so that all users have a shared and understood standard for safety, accountability, mutual-respect, and common-courtesy.

1. League maintains a zero-tolerance policy regarding all forms of discrimination, harassment or abuse. It is unacceptable to refuse to provide or accept services based on a person's race, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, sex, marital status, gender identity, age or any other characteristic protected under applicable provincial, federal or state law. This type of behaviour can result in permanent loss of access to League applications. League expects that all users treat one another with respect and courtesy during all interactions, in-person or otherwise, including being on-time for all scheduled appointments.
2. You may not submit, post, send, use, share, provide, transmit, or display spam, unsolicited messages or any violent, discriminatory, illegal, infringing, hateful, pornographic, obscene or sexually suggestive photos or other content via the League applications.
3. You are responsible for any activity that occurs through your account and you agree that you will not sell, transfer, license or assign your account, followers, username, or any other account rights. Further, you may not access or provide to others access through unauthorized means, including but not limited to, by using an automated device, script, bot, spider, crawler or scraper.
4. You are responsible for all use of the League applications by you and your representatives and for all use of your credentials, including use by others to whom you have given, or made available, your credentials.

5. You are responsible for and will comply with all applicable privacy and anti-spam laws in your jurisdiction.
6. You are responsible for keeping your username, password, and other login codes or credentials safe and secure.
7. You are responsible for the information presented in your listing, posts or comments on the League applications and such information must be truthful and accurate.
8. You are responsible for all data charges you incur through the use of the League Applications.
9. You understand and agree that League is not responsible for the materials posted or otherwise provided by other service providers, customers or users on or through the League applications by other users and that you use the League applications and all materials at your own risk.
10. You are solely responsible for your interaction with other users found using the League applications, whether online or offline and you will conduct yourself in a reputable manner at all times. You agree that League is not responsible or liable for the conduct of any other user of the League applications. League reserves the right, but has no obligation, to monitor or become involved in disputes between you and other users, customers or other service providers.
11. If you violate any of the rules in this League Code of Conduct, League may take appropriate action, including suspending your ability to use the League applications.
